James Spottswood Keene, of the Haltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South. On serving the refreshments the announcement was made in a very unique manner, taking the form of a puzzle which was only solved by Dan Cuple himself. The Ices were in molds of wedding bells and hearts, with a Cupid perched on each, who had in his possession one letter of the alphabet—a part of the puzzle to be solved. Upon putting these lotters together the mystery was disclosed—the names of the bride and groom-elect, with the date of the wedding revealed. Those present were: Misses Clarke Hoofnagle, Elsle and Sarah Cardwell, Peachy Fleet, Annie Macon and Virsinia Potts, Ruth Blakey. Denzel Hunt, Maude Woodfin, Ethèl Howard, Nannie Vadem, Orville Street, Marle McCullen, Virsinia Marshall and Miss Martha Drewry ginia Marshall and Miss Martha Drewry

Going West. Mrs. Travers Daniel, Jr., will leave Richmond the latter part of this week for Montana, where she will join her husband. Mr. Daniel has been in the West for the past year on account of his health, which is now greatly improved.

At the Art Club.

Mrs. C. I. Clarke will talk on "Industries and Their Effect Upon Art" tomorrow afternoon at the Art Club of Richmond. The address will be an exceedingly interesting and instructive one, as Mrs. Clarke has accomplished a great deal in the line of teaching industrial art at the High School, as well as her own personal experience along those lines. Tea will be poured by the house committee following the lecture.
